

Kalera to host a Virtual Investor Day on December 15, 2021

ORLANDO, FL (November 23, 2021) — Kalera AS (Euronext Growth Oslo: KAL, Bloomberg: KSLLF), will host a Virtual Investor Day event on Wednesday, December 15, 2021 from 8:00 am to 10:00 am Eastern Standard Time. The leadership team will provide a deeper understanding of the business, products and strategy as well as host a question-and-answer session.

Presenters will be as follows:

- Kim Lopdrup, Director and incoming Chairman of the Board
- Daniel Malechuk, Chief Executive Officer
- Fernando Cornejo, Chief Financial Officer
- Austin Martin, Chief Operating Officer
- Dr. Henner Schwarz, Chief Commercial Officer
- Dr. Cristian Toma, Founder and Chief Science Officer
- Dr. Jade Stinson, Co-Founder and President of Vindara

The link for the webcast and presentation will be available on the company's website: <https://kalera.com/investor/>

About Kalera:

Kalera is a vertical farming company headquartered in Orlando, Florida. Kalera uses technology to ensure that more people around the world have access to the freshest, most nutritious, and cleanest products available. It has spent several years optimizing plant nutrient formulas and developing an advanced automation and data acquisition system with Internet of Things, cloud, big data analytics and artificial intelligence capabilities. Kalera currently operates farms in the US (Orlando, Florida; Atlanta, Georgia; and Houston, Texas), and Kuwait. Additional farms are in development. More information is available at www.kalera.com.